January 29 callout for 2009 Sagamore West Farmers Market

West Lafayette, Ind. – January 21, 2009 – Produce vendors, artists and entertainers from the region are invited to learn about the opportunities that will be available this year at Sagamore West Farmers Market in West Lafayette. Those interested are asked to attend a callout meeting at 6:30 p.m., on Thursday, January 29, at Westminster Village, 2741 N. Salisbury St. in West Lafayette.

This marks the fifth year for the market in Cumberland Park off Salisbury Street, to be held from 3 to 6:30 p.m. every Wednesday from May 6 through October 28, with a possible pre-Thanksgiving market on Nov. 25.

Goods offered for sale must be grown, made or produced in Indiana. Items sold may include produce, meats, herbs, flowers, baked goods and other items. Crafters' booths will be juried for entry and must carry items handmade by the vendor. The cost is $75 for the 27-week season. A limited number of spaces are available free to area nonprofit, 501-3 (c) organizations, for promotional purposes. Space for nonprofits will be awarded first-come, first-served.

Applications and information packets regarding space allotments and market operations will be available at the callout session, and a representative from the Tippecanoe County Health Department will discuss requirements and regulations.

Sagamore West Farmers Market is sponsored by West Lafayette Parks and Recreation and the Sagamore West Area Business Alliance Farmers Market Committee.
